

NOT MEANT TO BE - PART III - MEANT TO BE

Feeling so tired
My body is weak
Slowly I move
Can hardly breathe
Now I remember
Like a movie on a screen
You're standing close to me
The sky above is clear
I still hear the solemn tone of your voice
"Stop wasting your time
Get rid of all your fears"
And I know it is time
For me to grow
What's not meant to be
Will never be...

To light back the fire
That kept us alive
Come to my senses
Let go the disguise
I still remember
We were bold, hopeful and free
You always stood by me
But I challenged destiny
I still hear the angry sound of your voice
"Get out of my life!
Why don't you disappear!
And we know it is time
For us to grow
What is meant to be
Will always be...

*I will be myself
I don't want to be nobody else
I will break free and fly
I am not taking any more lies
No more lies*
